An Unspeakable Crime in Aurora

Chief Deputy Don Orgel Hardin County Sheriff's Office

I have been fortunate to live long enough and in a time to see many firsts and many records chronicled. I have also had the opportunity to witness some of the events first hand. I have experienced the joy, triumph, and the gracious spirit of mankind interspersed with the brutal, forbidding cruelty that mankind is also capable of. I woke up the morning of July 20, 2012 remembering that I forgot to send my sister a birthday card. I turned on the news and immediately my thought changed. There it was: the story out of Aurora, Colorado. An unspeakable horror and crime. Another record in the U.S.A. – a record no one wants. The space following is a dedication to the people of Aurora. The white of the page is for the innocence of victims and the emptiness is for the hole left in the lives of all the families.

WHY?

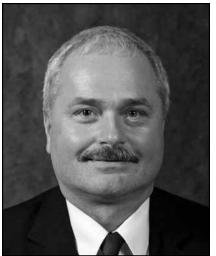

The bard from Minnesota once wrote "The answer is blowing in the wind." I will live with that for now.

National Sheriffs' Association President Paul Fitzgerald Goes Out with a Bang

I attended the National Sheriff's Association (NSA) annual conference in Nashville, Tennessee. Sheriff Paul Fitzgerald was the outgoing president, and he went out with a "bang" – literally. Several Iowa sheriffs who attended the event know what I'm getting at, while others probably heard about it on the news.

During the convention an apparent natural gas leak ignited in the lower area of the convention complex, causing approximately $750,000 worth of damage. Amazingly, no one was hurt from the explosion, which occurred in an area that had been busy with venders tearing down booths moments before. U.S. Marshal Ken Runde and his wife, my chief deputy and his wife, and my wife and I had just left the area of the escalators less than five minutes before the time of the explosion. If you have seen and heard the YouTube videos, you heard a familiar voice in the background - none other than our own Sheriff Ted Kamatchus of Marshall County - telling non-law enforcement people to keep out of the area and law enforcement to watch for evidence. Good job, Ted.

The hotel did a great job in getting 4,000-plus people food, water, and shelter when they evacuated the building. The sleeping arrangements worked, but it was interesting to say the least. They bussed everyone to the Grand Old Opry, giving them a pillow or towel and sheets. Several slept outside in the grass or on a park bench, or in their vehicles. The majority slept in the Grand Old Opry. They didn't allow anyone on stage, only the seating area. It was pretty cool to see people in the balcony laying flat with white sheets draped over them. It looked like a gigantic morgue. Had to take some pictures of that.

The ISSDA Board did not meet in May or June of this year, but meetings started again on July 19. Log onto the ISSDA web site (issda.org) to find out the next meeting time and place, and please attend if you can. The Board is here to assist any way it can. If you know of someone who would make a good board member, please submit their name. We would really like to see more representation from the western side of the state if at all possible.

Thanks and enjoy the rest of the summer.

Sheriff Jerry A. Dunbar

Lee Co. Sheriff's Office Named ESGR Patriotic Employer

The Lee County Sheriff's Office was recognized by the Office of the Secretary of Defense Employer Support of the Guard and Reserve (ESGR) as a "Patriotic Employer" in February 2012. Lee County Sheriff J.A. Sholl said the award was due to a nomination by Deputy Natalie Gillett, who appreciated the support of the Sheriff's Office deputies, correctional officers and staff during her deployment in Kuwait. "Thank you, Deputy Gillett, for your service to our country!" Sheriff Scholl said. "We are honored to receive this prestigious award." The nomination was reviewed by the state committee of the ESGR. The Lee County Sheriff's office was selected to receive the "Above and Beyond Award" at a luncheon in West Des Moines on April 14. "Law enforcement is the first line of defense on the local, state and federal level. But the members of our armed forces are the first line of defense on a global level, willing to fight for what is right and just while defending the freedom we all enjoy."

The Lee County Sheriff's Office received its Employer Support of the Guard and Reserve (ESGR) "Patriotic Employer" recognition in February 2012, and its "Above and Beyond Award" on April 14. Search & Rescue Dog "Danny Boy" Remembered for Strong Tracking Instincts and Compassion

On January 20, 2012, Iowa Law Enforcement lost a good friend and partner. "Danny Boy," a rescued German Shepherd owned by Gene and Trish JuVette from Rockwell City, Iowa.

Before being rescued by Gene and Trish, Danny Boy had been beaten and placed in a space six by eight feet square. After much love and patience, Danny not only became a good friend to the Ju-Vettes, but he also became a good friend of law enforcement.

In the summer of 2001, the Ju-Vettes discovered Danny Boy had a great nose and determination. They were steered to a search and rescue (SAR) group in Iowa and began learning more about S.A.R. In the summer of 2003, Danny Boy and Gene JuVette were certified for S.A.R. When asked how you train a dog for S.A.R., Gene replied, "We do not train the dog, as the dog knows what he is doing. What happens is the dog teaches us to read what he/ she is trying to tell us. Some need more time to learn and to trust the dogs than others."

One of the first calls they went on was at Coralville lake for a drowning. After returning to shore, Danny Boy went over to the father of the young boy that drowned. Danny Boy laid his head on the father's lap telling him that he felt his pain. This is when it was realized that Danny Boy could smell at the DNA level. Danny Boy went to many call outs over the next five years. In 2005 he responded to 28 call outs.

Danny Boy also had another unique quality. During all this time the Juvettes felt the importance of educating children on the use of life vests, since the vast majority of their calls were drowning.

They were also involved with a kidnapping and murder of six-yearold girl, and wanted to get the message out to kids of some of the pitfalls.

They visited dozens of schools, Boy and Girl Scout groups, Rotary and Lions clubs, daycares, kindergartens, church groups and more. They also walked in parades in various parts of the state. Several times during parades, Danny Boy on his own would pick out someone in a wheel chair with C.P. or M.S., go to them and let them pet him. How Danny Boy knew to do this the Ju-Vette's will never know.

Danny Boy was one of the most gentle 118-lb. German Shepherds you could ever meet, and his death will leave a large void in the hearts of the Juvettes, law enforcement and anyone who ever met him.

Lt. Joseph Hunt Retires after 30 Years with the Cerro Gordo County Sheriff's Office

by Sheriff Kevin Pals Cerro Gordo County

Lt. Joseph Hunt retired after serving more than 30 years with the Cerro Gordo County Sheriff's Office.

Lt. Hunt started as a deputy sheriff in January 1982. He also served as the first Cerro Gordo County Sheriff's Office canine handler with K-9 Lucy from 1998-2002. Lt. Hunt was promoted to the rank of lieutenant in November 1996.

ISSDA Partnership with YCamp

YMCA Camp has been called "the closest place to heaven on earth," and to the kids who come here the camp lives up to its reputation. YCamp and ISSDA have worked together to bring children to camp for many years. With combined efforts, we have been able to serve several thousand kids. Working with YCamp, the ISSDA has funded thousands of kids' trips to camp. The sheriffs' and deputies' program on average brings 100 kids to camp each summer. A camper from each county in Iowa is given the chance to go to camp each year. This is a great way counties are able to give back to the community. The campers get to ride to camp with a sheriff in a squad car, and go through check in. On the last day the sheriffs and deputies pick up the campers. YCamp is a unique environment where kids and young adults are able to grow and learn. Through structured and nationally recognized programs, YCampers are taught the universal core values of Caring, Honesty, Respect, and Responsibility. These core values, which have been taught by the YMCA since 1990, are invaluable life lessons that can be used by the campers when they return to their home communities. A week of summer camp that has been provided by the ISSDA helps strengthen the campers' relationship to law enforcement as well as their individual communities. Relationships that are created at YCamp through programs like rock wall climbing, horse riding, archery, arts and crafts, and canoeing can be directly translated into the communities that the campers return home to. During a typical week at ISSDA YCamp, sheriffs' and deputies' campers participate in fishing, swimming, and different sports including soccer, basketball, and volleyball, as well as shooting sports and outdoor living skills. Campers spend most of their time outside enjoying nature, and even have the option of a nature pathway to help them enjoy specific and detailed parts of nature, such as searching a creek bed for bugs and small fish that the campers have literal hand-time with. The YMCA's goal, and YCamp by extension, is to make strengthening the community our cause. And through partnership with the ISSDA, the YMCA is able to serve kids who would otherwise not be able to come to camp. ISSDA's partnership with YCamp advances the belief in character development as a worthy goal in teaching kids. Instilling core values at a young age creates strong communities, as well as helping with the kids' development.

New Iowa Law Expands Synthetic Drug Ban

Iowa Gov. Terry Branstad signed into law SF 2343 to update Iowa's list of controlled substances on May 25.

Responding to concerns by law enforcement, prosecutors, health care providers, parents and others about the elusive and dangerous nature of these products, the measure expands the State's ban on synthetic drugs—sometimes sold as incense or bath salts under names such as Spice and Ivory Wave—to apply to many more variations.

Effective immediately upon signing, the bill outlaws a total of 43 specific synthetic drug compounds (26 synthetic cathinones and 17 synthetic cannabinoids), plus five broader classes of synthetic cannabinoids as Schedule I Controlled Substances. That compares with eight synthetic designer drug compounds now controlled federally, and previously by Iowa law enacted last year.

Because synthetic drugs have no medicinal value and are harmful, the Schedule I Controlled Substance designation makes these products illegal to manufacture, sell or possess. By law, manufacturing, selling or possessing synthetic drugs with intent to deliver are aggravated misdemeanors, subject to a penalty of up to two years in prison

Gov. Terry Branstad signed SF 2343 on May 25, defining "cannabimimetic agents" and expanding the list of banned synthetic cannabinoids and cathinones. Left to right are: ISSDA President Don Orgel, First Lady Chris Branstad, Marshall County Jail Administrator Steve Hoffman, Gov. Branstad, Bremer County Deputy Shane Hoff, Polk County Sheriff Bill McCarthy, Johnson County Deputy Bill Deatsch, Mahaska County Deputy Don DeKock, and Iowa Rep. Clel Baudler. (photo: Eric J. and a $6,250 fine. Possession of synthetic drugs is a serious misdemeanor, subject to a penalty of up to one year in jail and a $1,875 fine.

Iowa's expanded law, listing all newly banned substances, and related educational information can be found on the Governor's Office of Drug Control Policy (ODCP) website.

Linn County Sheriff's Deputy Awarded Commendation for Saving Prisoner's Life

On May 12, 2012, Linn County Deputy Sheriff Jimmy Keller was working in the Linn County Correctional Center as the 4th floor deputy on the 1600-2400 hours shift.

At approximately 1752 hours, Deputy Keller was picking up meal trays from the isolation cells in the Maximum Security cell block. As Deputy Keller opened the door to one of the isolation cells, he observed that the inmate had tied a T-shirt around his neck with the other end secured to an item in the cell. Deputy Keller immediately called for backup and went into the cell. Deputy Keller found the T-shirt was placing pressure against the inmate's neck, he was mostly unresponsive and lying in a puddle of urine. Deputy Keller loosened the T-shirt from around the inmate's neck and was able to locate a pulse, while the inmate began gasping for air.

In reviewing the incident reports, there is little doubt that Deputy Keller ultimately saved this individual's life. Due to his actions, Sheriff Brian Gardner presented Deputy Jimmy Keller with the Linn County Sheriff's Office Lifesaving Award.

Montgomery County Opens New Jail and Law Enforcement Center

by Prochaska & Associates

After years of planning, Montgomery County has opened a new 24-bed jail and Law Enforcement Center (LEC) in Red Oak, Iowa.

The new LEC is the culmination of a comprehensive effort by the Montgomery County Jail Committee and its jail consultants, Prochaska & Associates, to develop and recommend a solution to the problems facing the existing Montgomery County Jail Facility.

In the Fall of 2008 Chief Jail Inspector Delbert Longley issued the following comments in his inspection report for the Montgomery County Jail:

"Montgomery County Jail is an old facility that does not meet the current needs of a jail. The jail is susceptible to escapes, suicides, unsanitary conditions... The jail's overall condition is unsanitary and unsafe. Staff has done a tremendous job attempting to maintain a clean, safe and secure facility. This is nearly impossible due to the design."

Chief Inspector Longley then went on to say, "The overall jail would be better suited for a 24-hour holding facility where the prisoners are to remain in a locked cell at all times."

In the Fall of 2009, Chief Inspector Longley issued a new report that echoed many of his earlier statements. He said, "The required separation of prisoners is difficult due to the design of the jail."

He continued, "Most of the same issues that have been mentioned in previous inspections are still present. The painting of the jail has made a great deal of difference; however, it is only a temporary fix. Future maintenance is drastically needed. I encourage Montgomery County to continue to move forward with their discussions with an architect. These discussions are needed to further address the condition of the building, safety and security issues, and to provide the tools staff need to operate the jail efficiently."

Chief Inspector Longley also noted, "Staff is doing a good job with a facility that was not designed for current needs."

Per Iowa Administrative Code 201-50.3(2), Montgomery County was required to complete corrections within a reasonable time period.

If the County were to fail to initiate corrective measures, the jail inspection unit has the authority to order the closure of the Montgomery County Jail.

In such a case it could be ordered that further confinement of prisoners or classifications of prisoners in the jail or any portion thereof be prohibited, or that all or any number of prisoners then confined be transferred to and maintained in another jail or detention facility, or any combination of remedies.

Upon receiving the unsatisfactory inspection reports, it became necessary to investigate options to bring the facility up to code. Four options were to include two different renovation schemes: building a new facility, or constructing a temporary holding facility and transporting prisoners to another location.

To help make the most informed decision and choose the option that is in the best interest of Montgomery County and its residents, the Montgomery County Jail Committee was formed.

The jail committee was comprised of elected officials, citizens, and business leaders from the community.

Based on a number of factors – with the most important being cost and benefit to the County – the Montgomery County Jail Committee eliminated three of the four proposals and chose the proposal to build a new jail facility.

The new facility now consists of a jail and joint Law Enforcement Center for the Sheriff's Office and City of Red Oak Police Department. Montgomery County voters approved the referendum for a new Law Enforcement Center on August 3, 2010, and the new LEC designed by Prochaska & Associates of Omaha, Nebraska, was opened this July.

Tpr. Mark Toney and Ofc. Roger Hildreth added to Iowa Peace Officer Memorial

Fallen Iowa peace officers Trooper Mark Toney and Des Moines Police Officer Roger Hildreth were honored on May 25 at the annual Iowa Peace Officer Memorial ceremony on the Capitol grounds. Their names were added to the Iowa Peace Officer Memorial. Members of both officers' families attended the event.

Iowa State Trooper Mark Toney was killed in an automobile accident on U.S. Highway 65/69 south of Indianola in 2011. Trooper Toney was serving the citizens of Iowa when his patrol car left the roadway and overturned several times, landing in a field. The vehicle burst into flames during the accident.

Trooper Toney served the Iowa State Patrol for 24 years. He is survived by his two sons, Darin and Adam Toney, fiancée Lisa Sickles, brother David Toney, sisters Debbie Wiseman and Sharron, and his parents.

Des Moines Police Officer Roger Hildreth suffered a fatal heart attack while running on a treadmill in the department's gym in 2008. He had just completed responses to a burglary in progress, and a call involving two dogs loose in a neighborhood before collapsing.

Officer Hildreth was a U.S. Navy veteran and served with the Des Moines Police Department for 18 years. He is survived by his two daughters, Rachel Hildreth and Hope Hildreth; his brother Richard; and sisters JoAnne and Susan.

Gov. Terry Branstad proclaimed May 13-19, 2012, Peace Officers' Week in Iowa. In his remarks at the Peace Officer Memorial Ceremony this morning, Governor Branstad said, "While the sadness that often accompanies this ceremony can be quite powerful, it at the same time allows us the opportunity to reflect and be thankful for such dedicated individuals. My thoughts and prayers are with all the families of peace officers today."

[This is the Memorial Day speech delivered at Des Moines' Veterans Memorial Community Choice Credit Union Convention Center on May 28 by Polk County Sheriff Bill McCarthy.]

"I am truly honored to be here today with each and every one of you, because we are here to honor those who stood for our Country when called, and who lost their lives in the process.

As you know, Memorial Day is an official federal holiday and has been for many years. But before it was officially designated, it was set aside by the people as a day to remember the many who died in the Civil War.

Now, in addition to remaining a day to honor those who have given their lives to protect this country, it has also evolved as a day to remember all who have served and are serving their country, and a day to remember our family members who have left us. During this time of reflection we try to grasp the extent of their service and their sacrifices. The soldiers, sailors, airmen, Coast Guard and Marines who answered the call throughout our history truly did so because they believed in America's highest ideals.

Marine Captain Ryan Prey was killed in the first few hours of the Iraq War. He wrote his mom and dad a letter to be opened only upon his death. It said in part, "Realize that I died doing something that I truly love, and for a purpose greater than myself." Likewise, Sergeant Michael Evans wrote his family saying, "My death will mean nothing if we stop now. I know it will be hard, but I gave my life so you could live, and not just live, but live in freedom."

Today, in honor of these Americans, our flag will fly at half mast from dawn to noon across this great nation. When you reflect on the many who have died defending this country and its values, please remember these were real live human beings who loved and were loved as fathers, brothers, sons, mothers, sisters, daughters, friends and neighbors.

Let me offer a short roll call of the major conflicts and wars that we have engaged in – what Ben Franklin would call, "The Altars of Freedoms Sacrifice:" The Revolutionary War, The War of 1812, The War with Mexico, The Civil War, The Spanish American War, W.W.I, W.W.II, Korea and Vietnam.

More recently, we have lost Americans in El Salvador, Beirut, Grenada, Panama, The Gulf War, Somalia, Bosnia, Yugoslavia, Iraq and Afghanistan. Unfortunately, engagements like these will continue to grow because this world is not a safe place. There are many in this world who would do evil to us or their neighbors if we ever fail to act, or take freedom for granted.

Human nature being what it is, I think we must always be ready to resist the greedy, or those driven by an ideology of control.

Thomas Paine said, "Those who reap the blessings of freedom must undergo the fatigue of supporting it."

Thomas Jefferson said, "The tree of liberty must be refreshed from time-to-time with the blood of patriots and tyrants."

These men were practical, if they were anything, and they understood that freedom is not free, and that we must be ever willing to protect our way of life.

Please let me add that we must also guard against a developing phenomenon where we engage in a fully sanitized war effort. What I mean by that is where only a small number of Americans bear the burdens of our country's life and death struggles.

Secondly, let's make sure we don't continue to put our military personnel in harm's way with tours of duty in a war zone two, three and four times unless they specifically volunteer for those tours.

Lastly, let's make sure that we continue to do as Abraham Lincoln said: "To care for him who shall have borne the battle, and for his widow and his orphan." Let us continue to insist on the best care for our

Let me close with a poem (written in 1981 by Florida high school senior and JROTC cadet Kelly Strong as a tribute to his father, who served two tours in Vietnam). It is appropriately titled:

FREEDOM IS NOT FREE

I watched the flag pass by one day. It fluttered in the breeze. A young Marine saluted it, and then he stood at ease. I looked at him in uniform so young, so tall, so proud. I thought how many men like him had fallen through the years. How many died on foreign soil? How many mothers' tears? How many pilots' planes shot down? How many died at sea? How many foxholes were soldiers' graves? No, freedom isn't free. I heard the sound of taps one night, when everything was still. I listened to the bugler play and felt a sudden chill. I wondered just how many times that taps had meant "Amen," when a flag had draped a coffin of a brother or a friend. I thought of all the children, of the mothers and the wives, of fathers, sons and husbands with interrupted lives. I thought about a graveyard at the bottom of the sea of unmarked graves in Arlington. No, freedom isn't free.
